Ms. Cora Beem:

It is my duty to inform the Illinois Law Enforcement and Standards Board about the arrest of (Bridgeforth, Tory J.) one of our part-time police officers.

On April 5, 2017, part-time Ofc. Bridgeforth #19, contacted Sgt. Benney of the South Suburban College Police Department and reported discharging his firearm off duty in Glenwood, Illinois.

On April 9, 2017, Detective(s) from the Glenwood Police Department arrested Bridgeforth and charged him with Aggravated Discharge of a Firearm: 720 ILCS 5.0/24-1.2-A-2 a Class I Felony. After investigating the incident the Cook County States Attorney's Office was going to seek charges against Bridgeforth. Bridgeforth was held at the Cook County Department of Corrections pending the Grand Jury on April 11, 2017. Bridgeforth was charged and is out on Bond.

On April 12, 2017, part-time Ofc. Tory J. Bridgeforth was suspended from the South Suburban College Police Department and I have his Badge and I.D.

Sincerely,

Leonard Chiaro
